PERSONAL – WHICH CARD TO USE FOR BILLS

Housing

- Mortgage / Rent: Usually pay from bank account. Only use a card if there is NO extra fee and you need to meet a signup bonus.
- HOA / Property management fees: If card is allowed with no or low fee, use Amex Blue Cash Preferred or Chase Freedom when 5% applies.

Utilities & Services

- Electricity, Gas, Water: Amex Blue Cash Preferred by default for steady rewards. Switch to Chase Freedom during any 5% utilities or PayPal quarter if you can route payments through PayPal.
- Home Internet: Amex Blue Cash Preferred (counts toward higher rewards with streaming and internet).
- Cell Phone (personal lines): Chase Freedom for phone protection benefits, or keep it simple on Amex Blue Cash Preferred if protection is not needed.
- Trash / Security / Home Services: Amex Blue Cash Preferred, unless there is a fee—then pay via bank.

Subscriptions & Streaming

- Streaming services (Netflix, Disney+, Spotify, etc.): Amex Blue Cash Preferred for bonus rewards.
- Cloud storage / apps (Apple, Google, Microsoft, etc.): Amex Blue Cash Preferred unless Freedom has 5% on “digital wallets” or “online services.”
- Gym / Memberships: Amex Blue Cash Preferred or Chase Freedom if in a 5% category.

Insurance & Taxes

- Auto insurance (personal policies): Amex Blue Cash Preferred if paying with a card has no fee.
- Health / Dental / Vision insurance: Prefer bank account unless no fee; if allowed, use Amex Blue Cash Preferred.
- Personal property taxes (if card is allowed): Only use a card if fee is low and you want to hit a bonus. Otherwise, pay via bank.

Other Personal Bills

- Subscriptions you want to separate (e.g., kids’ services): Use a single “subscription card” such as Chase Freedom so you can see all on one statement.
- Large one-time expenses: Choose between Amex Blue Cash Preferred (cashback) or a card where you are chasing a specific bonus offer.
